

Professional Foundations For Masterful Coaches Teleclass
a 6 Month In-Depth Professional Development Program with Seasoned Coaches Coach – Matthew Egan Rochte

This teleclass is not about coaching
It is about you and who you are as a coach.

Where are you on your path to becoming a Masterful Coach?

Want to reach to higher levels of professional excellence?

Want to build Competence, Confidence, Certainty, Ethics, and Commitment?

Want to work toward being a masterful coach?

Why take this class? So you have been through coach training. They taught you the skills and tools you need to be a coach. Few programs get into the professionalism of being a coach. This class is about building and strengthening your professional foundations, who you are as a coach and a human being, and as a professional in order for you to become a masterful coach. This class was developed for Corporate Coach U International by the coaching think tank, CoachWorks Intl. to develop coaches into Masterful Coaches. This was the cornerstone to my Corporate Coach U Program and as a graduate I am licensed to share this program with you. I love this program so much that I have taken it myself three times – each time revealing a new layer, discovering a new truth, and expanding my coaching presence, competence, confidence and commitment to the coaching profession. It will for you too.

(168 Page Professional Foundations Program Book included)

In this program you'll be asked to

- ◆ Evaluate & zero in on your current professional levels
- ◆ Determine how & who you want to BE with these
- ◆ Plan specific actions to reach your desired outcomes
